

When one state precedes the other*, the CRDT behaves like a LWW-Register *with regard to the happened-before relation, symbolised by

When two states are independent, they are both kept around This could happen if one participant was offline at some point

